A WORTHY CANDIDATE.

The loyal voters of the Commonwealth ask no higher tribute to the worth and character of Judge Williams than the following neat compliment paid him by the only daily Democratic paper of Western Pennsylvania the day following his nomination. It said:

"The nomination of the Hon. Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be. It is an auspicious sign of the times, and if the county conventions are equally fortunate in the selection of legislative candidates, there will be a stop put to the deplorable corruption at the seat of government under a new reign of honest men and conscientious legislators.—Pittsburgh Post, June 28th, 1867.

The Post, in referring to the above, on the 29th of August, was pleased to say:

"We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams' private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic."

CALIFORNIA has gone Democratic in a way which leads us to believe that the Republican ranks were sadly disorganized in that State. The victory reflects not so much credit on the Democratic party as odium on the leaders of the Republicans. The people, previous to the nominations, clamored for good candidates, and promised to support no person for office who was unworthy their votes. Their will was in a large measure set aside, and consequently the machine was smashed with the result of their own folly. The Democrats will rejoice exceedingly over their victory, but let the Republicans resolve that Pennsylvania shall offset California at the approaching election, and thus reaffirm in thundering tones adherence to the principles on which our government rests. The opposition victory on the Pacific coast should rouse the Republicans into renewed exertions for the triumph of their cause in this State, and teach them the danger of apathy. Our candidates are worthy election and with some earnestness thrown into the canvass there can be no doubt but an overwhelming majority will be accorded them.

ITALY and Mexico have recently sold vast properties belonging to the Catholic Church, and applied the proceeds to paying their respective indebtednesses. It it now rumored that Austria will follow this example. However sacred Catholic governments may hold the political temporalities of the Pope to be, a point has been reached in which they do not scruple to appropriate properties of the church, "gifts of the faithful," to their own use. When the sons of the church thus rise up against her heart must be smitten with grief.

HON. JOHN W. FORNEY, the gifted editor of the Philadelphia Press, arrived home on Wednesday, after an extended tour in Europe. His letters to his journal, while abroad, were very readable, and detracted none from the high literary reputation of the writer. We are pleased to welcome him home, feeling that his services in the important political canvass in which we are now engaged are needed, and will add materially to the majority by which Judge Williams will be elevated to the Supreme Bench.

THE CHOLERA is reported as raging violently among the Indians on the Western plains. If the dread disease singles out a few thousand victims from the dusky demons who have of late been so troublesome, it will accomplish a great good. Perhaps the visitation of the pestilence will have some effect in exciting the superstitious savages to the belief that the scourge is the reward from the Great Spirit for their late atrocities on the white settlers.

IT is officially announced that Napoleon visited Salzburg merely to mingle his tears with those of Francis Joseph, of Austria, over the unfortunate fate of Maximilian. This giving out is very opportune, as the world was settling to the opinion that the wily French Emperor was again abased, and had failed to accomplish any desired result from his conference in Austria.

IT will prove gratifying to the numerous Pittsburgh stockholders of the Merchants' Union Express Company, that its affairs have been examined into by a New York Court, and that it is found not only solvent, but has several hundred dollars over and above all debts. The concern promises to live and prosper.

THE Johnstown Tribune says: Major Russell Errett was on Tuesday nominated for the State Senate by the Republican Convention of Allegheny county, defeating Hon. T. J. Bigham, present Senator, twenty votes. Major Errett will make an honest, intelligent and influential legislator.

THERE are few more able or better conducted journals in Ohio than the Tuscarawas Chronicle, and we are glad to learn that it is in the enjoyment of a full share of patronage. It comes to us this week in a greatly enlarged form, and presents a very neat and attractive appearance.

MR. DARWIN A. FINNEY, member of Congress from the Crawford District, has been in an unsatisfactory condition of health for some time past. He is now at a Canadian water establishment; but is doing so poorly his friends are apprehensive he will not be restored.

BURRELL, who brought suit against the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Boston, to recover nearly a million of dollars for filling the quota of that city when those "three hundred thousand more" were wanted, has been defeated in the United States Court.

NEW YORK CITY is thronged with merchants from all parts of the country who are making their fall and winter selection of goods. Trade has consequently received a new impetus which is not only felt there but in all prominent cities.

It now appears that the English subjects held in captivity by the dusky Abyssinian lover of Queen Victoria, have not been released. Measures are on foot to secure their freedom by force of arms.

COL. C. W. TYLER, of Susquehanna county, has associated with Mr. R. LYLE WHITE in the management of the Meadville Republican—one of the most welcome of our State exchanges.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6, 1867.

AMNESTY PROCLAMATION.

The pardon proclamation soon to be issued was before the President and Cabinet to-day. All the members were present excepting General Grant and Attorney General Stanberry. The latter was represented by Assistant Attorney General Binckley.

The report that the proclamation met with considerable opposition is not correct, although it is understood there was some difference of views on minor points, while all agreed on the general scope of the document.

It will be recollected President Lincoln's proclamation of December, 1863, and March, 1864, offered full pardon and amnesty on certain conditions to those engaged in rebellion, excepting six classes, specifically named, and that President Johnson, in his proclamation of May, 1865, for reasons named, increased the exceptional classes to fourteen. It is understood that the President now proposes, by virtue of constitutional provisions, that the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment, to reduce the number of classes to four.

The President first excepts from the benefit of the proclamation all against whom legal proceedings have been instituted. This excludes Jefferson Davis, and perhaps other prominent executive officers of the late Confederacy.

Second, All who have been foreign agents of that Government. Messrs. Mason and Slidell fall within this exception.

Third, All who have been military or naval officers above the rank of Brigadier General in the army, or Captain in the navy. The former proclamation excepted from pardon all above the grade of Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel in these branches of public service. By the present provisions there are excluded Major Generals, Lieutenant Generals and General Lee, although the latter is not mentioned by name, and also Admiral Semmes.

The fourth exceptional class is not so definitely known as the foregoing, but it applies to all who may appear to have been implicated in the assassination of President Lincoln.

The proclamation is based on Constitutional powers to grant pardon.

GENERAL GRANT AND GENERAL SICKLES.

Major General Sickles' recent report to General Grant contains the letters of instruction to the latter to "follow the course of action indicated by you as right, and regard my dispatch of the 13th as entirely withdrawn."

The report does not give the dispatch in question, but it is ascertained to be as follows:

Washington, August 13, 1867. To Maj. Gen. Sickles, Charleston: Paragraph 2, General Order No. 10, current series, must not be construed to bar the action of a United States Court. The authority conferred on District Commanders does not extend in any respect over the acts of Courts of the United States.

[Signed.] U. S. GRANT, General.

DINNER TO GEN. SICKLES.

A private dispatch from Charleston received in Washington says the Staff and other officers of Gen. Sickles' command, gave to him a dinner, served in fine style, at the Mills House this evening. General Canby and staff were invited guests. The best feeling prevailed and the following sentiment was offered: "Our departing guest, the retiring commander. Carrying with him our affectionate attachment, thoroughly earned, may a prosperous voyage bear him where welcomes await him as cordial as our adieus are regretful." To this General Sickles responded in a short speech.

WAR DEPARTMENT—CABINET CHANGES.

The Intelligencer also says: The rumor of a change in the War Department is wholly unfounded in truth, but we cannot but give credence to the report that Cabinet changes are imminent.

GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT.

The Intelligencer is authorized to say that the account of the alleged interview between the President and General Grant, in which the latter is represented to have spoken and conducted himself in a manner in the highest degree reprehensible, is a fabrication from beginning to end. General Grant did not say to the President he considered his opposition to the Constitutional Amendment fortunate to the country, as it prevented the admission of the enemies of the government, in the form of foreign States, to representation in Congress. The assertion that during the interview referred to the rupture between the President and Gen. Grant became irreconcilable, is equally without foundation, as is also another to the effect that the latter expressed himself dissatisfied with the evident animus of that document, meaning the recent proclamation issued by the President.

YELLOW FEVER AT PENSACOLA.

A letter from the Mayor of Pensacola, dated August 29th, says: "The yellow fever broke out about three weeks since, and there has been up to this time about two hundred and fifty cases. It was not generally malignant in type, though it seems to become more so as the season advances. The presence of many unacclimated persons among us, and the poverty of our people generally, is causing much suffering."

CALIFORNIA ELECTION.

The Unionists Defeated—Both Parties Astonished at the Result.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6.—The Democrats carried the State, legislative, and municipal ticket in San Francisco by overwhelming majorities. The Union party elected only a minority of the Supervisors and School Directors. Returns from the interior continue to swell Haight's majority, which may reach eight thousand. The entire Union State ticket is defeated, and it is doubtful if one Union candidate is elected. This is astonishing to both parties. Nothing worse was expected by the Union men than the defeat of Gorham and two or three others on the State ticket.

The returns are not nearly full, but it is believed a large number of Union voters absented themselves from the polls. The Democrats will have a majority in the State Assembly. Fourteen hold-over Senators out of twenty may hold the Union majority in the Senate, but the election of a Republican Senator is now impossible.

Mr. Haight addressed a meeting last night, claiming the election as a protest against corruption and extravagances, and opposition to the Chinese-negro suffrage reconstruction policy of Congress.

The Union papers urge renewed efforts to carry the October elections.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6.—The majorities reported in twenty-seven counties show Haight seven thousand ahead. The counties to hear from will generally give a democratic majority.

Great preparations are making for the State Fair which opens next week at Sacramento. Native silk and cotton fabrics will be exhibited.

The tonnage arrivals at this port during August were two hundred and seventy-one vessels; clearances seventy-one.

Japan and Hong Kong dates are received to the 20th and 19th. The news was unimportant.

The Kentuck mining Company have declared a dividend of $25 per share, amounting to $50,000.

FROM CLEVELAND.

Fenian Congress—Nature of the Proceedings Made Public—Convention of Spiritualists—Secret Order to be Founded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CLEVELAND, September 6.—As much of the proceedings of the Fenian Congress as has transpired shows in yesterday's session the adoption of resolutions touching the death of General Meagher; appointment of a Committee to confer with the Fenian sisterhood; some additions to the Military Committee; resolutions concerning American citizens in British prisons; and a communication purporting to be from the Acting Attorney General of the United States, stating that the Fenian arms heretofore seized by the Government were now released. In all weightier matters strict secresy is observed.

The stormy Spiritual Convention this morning succeeded, after much debate, in adopting a resolution recommending the founding of a secret order, having the general characteristics of masonry or odd fellowship. The Convention will probably adjourn to-night.

General Sickles Relieved by General Canby.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHARLESTON, S. C., September 5.—At noon to-day General Canby appeared at the district headquarters and formally relieved General Sickles. He was received with a salute of thirteen guns. General Sickles, in his farewell order, commends the zeal and fidelity of his subordinate officers. General Canby's first order simply announces that he has assumed command, names his staff, and continues in force for the present all existing orders. General Sickles sails for New York on Friday.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Rupture Between the President and General Grant—General Sickles Will Demand a Court of Inquiry—General Canby Assumes Command of the Second District—All Existing Orders and Regulations to be Observed—Favorable Reports from General Ord's District—Illness of Gen. Grant.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 6.—The Herald's special says: An open rupture between the President and General Grant is reported. The President's recent proclamation regarding the interference with the laws in the Carolinas has caused it. One account says that General Grant had accused the President of disloyalty, and another that he considered certain allusions in the proclamation as insulting to himself. It seems generally conceded, however, that General Grant has determined to leave the War Office. In a recent conversation with leading Republicans he is reported to have said that he fully endorsed Congress, and would make his political views public if a favorable opportunity offered. His successor in the War Office is already spoken of. Fresh reports are circulating that McCulloch and Seward will soon leave the Cabinet.

The Times special says: A private dispatch from Charleston to-night announces that in view of the grave allegations contained in President Johnson's proclamation, General Sickles will demand a Court of Inquiry. He will sail from Charleston for New York on Saturday.

General Canby, on assuming the command of the Second Military District, issued the following order, an official copy of which has been received at the army headquarters here: All existing orders and regulations are adopted and confirmed, and will be observed and enforced unless hereafter modified or revoked by proper authority. This, of course, retains in force the famous order No. 10, the promulgation of which caused Sickles removal.

Official information from Ord's Department says that Mississippi, which has justly earned the reputation of being the most turbulent of all the Southern States, except Texas, is now comparatively quiet. The military have made numerous arrests of horse-thieves and guerillas, and have brought to punishment a larger number of criminals during the past three months than the civil authorities ever arrested since the close of the war.

It is known that in the interview between the President and General Grant, last Tuesday, the latter charged upon Mr. Johnson the responsibility of the failure of the Constitutional amendments, by which the South had lost more than the North, for thereby ten organized States had been kept out of the Union until they complied with these proclaimed conditions of safety.

The World's special says: Of the interview between the President and General Grant, no quarrel took place; no unpleasant word was exchanged, and in fact the interview was as pleasant as dozens which have preceded it. That Grant and the President differ on some points regarding the enforcement of the reconstruction acts is too well established to be repeated, but their growls and snarls and calling each other names, as some of the Radical correspondents telegraph, proves to be such absurd stuff that neither of the distinguished officials deem it necessary to dignify it with a contradiction.

A letter bearing on General Sheridan's administration, asking General Grant to reinstate Governor Wells in order that he might sign the levee bonds, written by Senator Henderson and signed by Senators Morrill, Gates, Ramsey, and other Radicals will soon be published.

The Tribune's special says: General Grant has been sick to-day. He was compelled to leave the War office shortly after he got there, and return home. The double duties of Secretary of War and General of the Armies are wearing on his health.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6, 1867.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT—ERROR CORRECTED.

The Secretary of the Treasury has addressed the following letter to the Washington Agency of the Associated Press:

Treasury Department, Sept. 6.—SIR: In the statement of the public debt, on the 1st, there was a clerical error in the amount of the debt in the three-year compound interest notes, by not deducting the amount that had matured, $126,727.30, from the total amount then outstanding, viz: $915,123.31, which should have been $788,396.00. The total amount outstanding on the 1st of August matured and not matured was $1,148,578.00. Of this amount there was redeemed during August $233,455.20, leaving the total outstanding September 1st, $915,123.30. This correction leaves the debt outstanding, less cash in the Treasury, $2,492,783,365.65, instead of $2,505,456.95.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) H. McCULLOCH,
Secretary of Treasury.

Extraordinary Rain—Reservoir Dams Carried Away—Water Supply of Hartford Interrupted—Heavy Damages.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARTFORD, Sept. 6.—The dam of the West Hartford Reservoir, six miles from the city, which supplied the city with water, was washed away about half-past nine o'clock this morning sweeping with tremendous force over corn fields and pasture lands, bearing huge limbs, fences and everything with it. For two miles the fields were flooded, and the valleys and flats below the stream were filled with sand, rocks and other debris. The damage to private property is considerable, and the loss to the city will be $100,000. The dam carried away was fifty-five feet high from the bed of the brook and two hundred feet wide. It contained some 80,000 yards of earth and was built one year ago at a cost of $55,000. It has not been considered safe, was never properly built, and was a failure from the start, always leaking and weak. The reservoir that was thirty-two acres in extent, is now drained dry. It held two hundred millions gallons. The upper reservoir, two miles above, with a partly finished dam seven feet high, was also swept away. The reservoir covers seventy acres.

The city has been supplied since January with water from the West Hartford reservoir, but can be fed by pumps from the Connecticut river in the old way, so there will be no interruption of the supply.

The streams beyond West Hartford are flooded, and many bridges gone, interrupting travel. The branch road to Collinsville has been in some places submerged or swept away, and the trains to-day are interrupted. Two dams in Bristol, owned by E. Ingraham & Co., clock manufacturers, were carried away with a loss of $10,000. The rain which fell in this city yesterday was 18 8-100 inches.

FROM KANSAS.

Woman Suffrage Canvass—Cholera Raging Among the Indians—State Fair—Unprecedented Crops.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LAWRENCE, KAN., September 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Miss Susan B. Anthony, of New York, addressed a very large audience here last night on female suffrage. Mrs. Stanton's argument in favor of equal rights was pronounced by the State Journal the finest oration ever delivered in Kansas. A vigorous canvass is being made in favor of striking from the Constitution the words "white" and "male."

Advices from the Indian territory state that the cholera had again broken out and was raging violently amongst the wild Indians of the plains.

The State Fair will be held here, commencing on the 24th inst. The yield of all kinds of field produce this season was never before equalled in Kansas.

Yellow Fever at Mobile.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MOBILE, September 6.—Two cases of yellow fever were sent to hospital from the schooner Down, lately from Tampico. No cases originating in the city are reported.

MR. HELM, the Governor elect of Kentucky, will not recover from his illness.

IN the Erie district Mr. Morrow B. Lowry, the Republican candidate for Senator, is encountering some opposition in his own party, but not to such an amount as to put his election in doubt.

THE "Grand Encampment of National Union Johnson Men" held a secret session in Washington, yesterday. We wonder what terrible plot was laid against Congress and the people by the political mountebanks composing this mysterious order. They mean mischief, but are so numerically weak as to excite no immediate alarm. Like Fenian Congresses, they are great to plan but very slow to execute.

Are the Blacks Dying Out?

The Houston Telegraph (Texas) commenting on the return from the registrations of voters in the Southwest, says:

The result will put an end to the opinion generally prevalent throughout the country, that the negro population has been largely reduced through the war. In 1860 the blacks of Louisana were 350,373; which estimating that there is one voter to every five of population, would yield a crop of 70,074 voters. The returns of the registration just completed show the negro voters now to be 82,907, or about 13,000 more than there would have been in 1860, had negroes then been entitled to vote. So far, therefore, from the blacks of Louisiana having diminished during the eventful period of the war, they must have increased by something like 100,000.

It will be recollected that it was in this State that a heavy decrease of blacks was expected to be shown. Even Gen. Banks, at the close of the war, in an official communication to the Government, stated that it had fallen off at least one-fourth.

The same thing is shown by the registration returns in Alabama, where the negroes appear to have considerably swelled their numbers since 1860.

OUR ENGLISH COUSINS.—The London Star concludes an article on the American Ingraham claim to the city of Leeds as follows: Doubtless more ties of blood and kindred than the people of the United States are aware of link them to the 'old country,' and perhaps oftener than they think it gives them a right of inheritance in the amassed wealth of England. The Ingrahams are not a solitary instance—they are but the type of a class; and though others may never be able to lay claim to the same riches, the mass of the New Englanders—nay, of all Americans—are still our blood relations. 'The nexus of payment,' as Mr. Carlyle calls it, is but a small part of the bond which unites us with the men of the United States. They have little need of claim on us, and the day seems very far distant when they will want any such. However the enterprise of the Ingrahams may eventuate—and we have but a speculative interest in the matter one way or other—the Americans will not, we suppose, assert en masse their title to the soil of England, and so settle 'the land question' for us in a quite unexpected way.

YELLOW FEVER INCIDENTS.—Among the humors of yellow fever at Galveston it is related that a nurse who had suffered his patient to die consoled himself with the bottle until he also fell dead—drunk. The undertaker coming, saw an apparently lifeless man stretched upon the floor, and took his dimensions for a coffin. On the discovery of his mistake he concluded to keep the measure, as it would probably soon be needed. A number of misers are among the sufferers. One is killing himself with anxiety about the safety of a wad of greenbacks that he keeps under his pillow. Another, with abundance of means, swore he would die before he would pay a nurse. An attendant was furnished, but the man died before morning. One of the frail women of the city has left a home of infamy and is devoting herself to the duties of a nurse with all the devotion of a Magdalen.

PARAPHRASE OF THE LORD'S PRAYER.—The following paraphrase of the Lord's Prayer has been set to music, in England. It is the best we have ever seen in any language—there is nothing wanting and nothing redundant:

Our Heavenly Father, hear our prayer;
Thy name be hallowed everywhere;
Thy kingdom come, Thy perfect will
In earth, as heaven, let all fulfill;
Give this day's bread that we may live;
Forgive our sins as we forgive;
Help us temptation to withstand;
From evil shield us by Thy hand;
Now and forever unto Thee,
The kingdom, power and glory be.
Amen.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Opera House was filled with a fashionable audience last night, to see Miss Thompson, who, it appears, daily increases in popularity. The audience was entertained with "Rich and Poor," a very interesting drama, which was rendered in a manner perfectly acceptable to all who witnessed it. The second Grand Matinee of the season will be given this afternoon, when a very pleasing and attractive bill, suited to the occasion, will be presented. The new company is all that could be desired and is becoming quite popular.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—Trimble's Varieties Theatre is doing a better business this season than it has ever done since its establishment, a fact solely attributable to the perseverance and energy of the managers, Messrs. Williams and Jefferson, who leave nothing undone to make it a first class establishment of the kind. Every night something new is presented, so that its patrons are never wearied with that which becomes stale and unpopular. The fun loving portion of the community can always find something there of a mirth provoking character.

"A little nonsense now and then,
Is relished by the best of men."

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—An accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday, near the Allegheny and Westmoreland county line, the particulars of which we are unable to learn, further than that Bernard Biesel, a dairyman, who resided in Baldwin township, was run over by a train of cars and instantly killed. The body was probably taken to his late residence last night, where an inquest will be held upon it.

AT READING, a betting case has just been decided in Court. Two men staked a hundred dollars apiece on the last Presidential election. The stakeholder refused to hand over the money to the winning man, and the Directors of the Poor sued him for the amount. An old statute law was hunted up and the Directors won the suit, and got the money.

Judgment Day in the United States Court—A Trio of Counterfeiters Sentenced.

In the United States Court, yesterday, the business transacted consisted of the final disposition of the cases of the counterfeiters Myers, Johnston and Black, convicted at the recent August special term, the latter of passing and having in his possession and the others of selling counterfeit national currency. The Court having opened at ten o'clock, R. B. Carnahan, Esq., the District Attorney, after stating that the prisoners named had been indicted, tried and convicted, and that motions for new trials had been overruled, moved for judgment.

was first requested to "stand up," and having been asked if he had "anything to say," his counsel, Wm. Linn, Esq., made a few observations. He said the prisoner had been convicted on two indictments, and of the one in which John Walters was the prosecuting witness, he had to say that he had been informed, on Thursday, by Mr. Jesse Reed, a highly respectable citizen of Brownsville, that Walters had told Jacob Conn, Esq. also a citizen of Brownsville, in high standing, that he (Walters) had sworn falsely against Black. Mr. Linn also referred to the fact that Alexander Moffitt, a Government witness, had denied that upon arriving in Allegheny City from Wheeling, with Black in custody, he got off the train, took his prisoner inside the Penitentiary gates, and there informed him that he had been convicted of a crime by a Court Martial, but that if he would swear a certain way in the Moffitt-Thompson conspiracy case, he (Moffitt) would have him (Black) released in two hours. Mr. Linn said he had understood there was a person at the Penitentiary who it was thought would be able to identify Black and Moffit as persons he had seen on the grounds about the time of this alleged conversation.

The Court suggested that Walters might be indicted for perjury. It was too late to enter a motion for a new trial. It had been designed, however, to sentence the prisoner upon but one of the indictments, and although it was immaterial upon which sentence was pronounced, that in which John Walters was the prosecuting witness would be the one on which judgment would be suspended. His Honor, Judge McCandless then proceeded to sentence Black. He said it was very evident the prisoner had been one of an extensive gang of counterfeiters in Greene and Washington counties, it so happening that the Government was successful in his apprehension and conviction. He was connected with the man Wm. Dawson, for whom Government officers had been searching, and of his (Black's) guilt there could be no doubt.

The prisoner said he was not guilty of the charges preferred against him, and manifested considerable emotion. He said that he was poor, without money, and had a wife and two children.

His Honor said he had a duty to the public as well as to the prisoner to perform. The organized system of counterfeiting throughout the country could only be checked through the severe punishment of the offenders. The prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of one thousand dollars and to undergo five years imprisonment at hard labor in the Western Penitentiary.

was next called to "stand up," and asked what he had to say in his own behalf. His counsel, Hon. P. C. Shannon, who had most ably defended him, was present, and conferred with him in relation to some business matters. Mr. Shannon thought it unnecessary to make any further appeal to the Court on behalf of the prisoner, having exhausted all that could be urged in his argument on the motion for a new trial. The prisoner, in reply to the Court, said he had nothing to say. Although entirely convinced of the prisoner's guilt, His Honor said he had carefully avoided expressing his convictions to the jury. The principal evidence was given by an accomplice, but there could be no doubt that Myers had been connected with a band of counterfeiters in the vicinity of Pithole, in the oil regions. The sentence of the Court was that he should pay a fine of $3 000 and undergo seven years imprisonment at hard labor in the Western Penitentiary. Sentence on a second indictment was suspended.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON.

This old man who had lived for many years in Blair county, standing fair in the community, was next called up to receive sentence. He was attended by his counsel, Mr. Parviance, but, as in the case of Myers, all matters in extenuation had been exhausted before the jury and also to the Court on the motion for another trial. The prisoner protested his innocence of the charge. The Court said he had a very fair trial, had been defended with uncommon ability, legal acumen and skill. His Honor's convictions were that he was guilty, but the facts had been submitted to the jury, without prejudice, and they had decided. The prisoner was one of the most dangerous of counterfeiters, closely allied, as he had been, with the manufacturers of counterfeit money, and but for his extreme age, fifty-six years, the Court would feel it a duty to impose a more severe sentence than had been determined on. The same sentence as in the case of Myers was then pronounced—a fine of three thousand dollars and seven years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Black was taken to the Penitentiary yesterday. Myers and Johnston will be allowed to remain in the county prison until next week, in order to enable them to make some arrangements concerning their business. An active effort is being made to induce the President to pardon Johnston.

Methodist Conference at Uniontown, Penna.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

The Conference re-assembled yesterday, with President J. Crowl, in the chair. Prayer was offered to the Throne of Grace by J. W. Rutledge, after which the usual committees were announced and the minutes of the previous session read and approved. Rev. G. G. Westfall, of the West Virginia Conference, was received on presenting the proper certificate. Rev. S. Young, Elder, and P. L. Conoway, licentiate, were transferred to this Conference from that of West Virginia.

A number of clergymen of different denominations being present, were introduced and invited to honorary seats. Rev. J. B. Walker, the Corresponding Secretary, addressed the Conference regarding his work. He reported that the young men preparing for the ministry at Adrian College, and who are supported by the Board, are doing well. In view of the present condition of the Church, the Conference concluded that their interests required that the Executive should travel throughout the district during the coming year. Rev. W. Reeves, D. D., was elected to that office.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. E. Mathers, fraternal messenger from the West Virginia Conference, addressed the meeting, explaining the status of that body.

Reverends D. Jones, J. Robinson, and J. Brown, were appointed a Committee to fix the President's salary.

At this stage of the session, a communication was presented from the Methodist Church, of Birmingham, commending the faithfulness and integrity of Revs. B. B. Knight, J. B. Graham and William H. Brewster, formerly Wesleyan Ministers, who have remained faithful to the cause of the union of non-Episcopal Methodists of this country. Referred to a Committee.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to examine the young men who apply for aid in preparing for the ministry. Committee—Revs. J. Brown, D. D., W. Collier, D. D. and J. Robinson.

The session continues both pleasant and interesting. The spirit of Christ pervades the Assembly.

The weather is fine and all feel well. More anon.

Cows Stolen.

For several months past some persons have been doing a thriving business in the way of cattle stealing, and the work has been so adroitly done as to baffle all efforts to detect the parties engaged in it. Almost weekly we hear of cows being stolen in some one of the adjacent townships, but it has never yet been our privilege to notice the capture of the thieves.

One night last week a valuable young cow was stolen from the farm of Mr. Wilson Shaw, of Shaler township, and although standing an immediate and thorough search was instituted, no trace of the missing animal could be found. The thief, not being satisfied with one cow, or perhaps having taken a fancy to the breed, paid Mr. Shaw a second visit, Wednesday night, and drove away his finest milch cow. Thursday morning Mr. S. tracked the missing cow to the first toll-gate, through which she had been driven toward the city the night previous, about ten o'clock. He came on to the next toll gate, but the keeper having retired at an earlier hour than usual, had not seen anything of the cow, and he was consequently unable to trace her any further. It is evident, however, that the animal was driven to the city, and perhaps butchered. Mr. Shaw is a lover of fine stock and we are informed that the last cow taken was one of the best in the State, hence valued very highly by Mr. H., having refused a very large price for her a few days before she was stolen. It is a great pity that some means cannot be devised by which the thieves can be ferreted out and brought to justice. A few years in the Penitentiary might teach them to be more honest.

Narrow Escape.

The Point was the scene of a frightful accident on Thursday evening, which fortunately terminated without serious injury to any one. Mr. McGinnis and his sister were sitting in a buggy at the Point Ferry, awaiting the return of the boat, when the horse suddenly took fright and ran away. Mr. McGinnis was violently thrown out of the buggy, and the frightened horse ran up Penn street at a furious rate and turned up Marbury to Liberty street, where he was stopped by Mr. Wier, near Mrs. Jackson's boarding house. Miss McGinnis had been thrown out of the buggy during the frightful ride, and her dress having become entangled in the axle, she was dragged a considerable distance in this perilous situation, but fortunately escaped serious injury. She was slightly bruised, as also was Mr. McGinnis.

SLATES AND SLATE GOODS.—Mr. F. G. Reineman, No. 113 Third street, opposite the St. Charles Hotel, is the agent for an invaluable preparation known as Pierce's Slate Surface. The compound can with ease be applied to wood, tin, paper or pasteboard, leaving a genuine stone surface which is easily written upon and vastly superior to the old slates now in use in our schools. At the office dealers and others will find a large assortment of slated goods for sale, such as pocket tablets, leaf slates, tablet slates and book slates. We direct the attention of stationers to this great invention.

An Appeal to the People.

Extract from the Minutes of a District Meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic of Allegheny County, held May 9, 1867:

Resolved, That a Committee of three members from each Post in the District be appointed to solicit subscriptions for the establishing of a Relief Fund for the benefit of needy widows and orphans of deceased soldiers in this District; said subscriptions to be paid in to the District Quartermaster, who shall make disbursements to needy applicants upon the recommendation of the Relief Committees of the several Posts, countersigned by the Post Commander of the Post to which the recommending committee belongs.

Resolved, That said Committee be instructed to make an appeal to the people, through the Press, for contributions to said Relief Fund.

GEN A. L. PEARSON,
Headquarters, G. A. R., Allegheny County District.
JOHN G. MACCONNELL, A. A. G.
May 12, 1867.

THE APPEAL

WHEREAS, The recent war has resulted in the death of many soldiers who have left widows and orphans without support; and whereas, many examples of suffering are daily brought to our notice; and in accordance with our instructions, we do hereby call upon the citizens to assist the Grand Army of the Republic to relieve the suffering caused by the late war.

The Grand Army of the Republic is composed of soldiers who have been honorably discharged, and has for its object the relief of suffering caused by death and disability among soldiers and sailors.

During the closing summer the Grand Army of the Republic has clothed, fed and furnished medical assistance to many requiring assistance.

Yet the demands for aid are beyond their ability. At this moment there are in the city delicate women supporting four and five children by manual labor. Prior to the war these women knew no want, and begging is so repugnant to them that they have not yet engaged in it.

Almost daily the citizens are requested to make donations, by those who have not been soldiers and who are not soldiers' widows, of money, et cetera. Imposition cannot be successfully practiced upon the G. A. R., as the association has an officer who thoroughly investigates every case.

Every Post has a committee of investigation to thoroughly examine every application for aid, and forwards the result to a superior officer, who directs what is proper. It is hoped that the citizens will, by aiding the Association, be exempt from daily annoyance from applicants who may be referred to G. A. R.

Clothing, food or money may be deposited with any member of the Committee.

Serious Accident.

A serious accident occurred on Webster street, Thursday, by which Henry Bole, a little boy, had his knee joint dislocated. Mr. Bole, the father of the boy, who resided on Webster street, was moving to another part of the city and had employed one of McCallin's express wagons, which Mr. Sloan drove. The wagon had been loaded with household goods, and was proceeding down Webster street with the boy, his grandfather, an old man, and the driver, sitting on the front seat, when the hold back straps gave way and the wagon ran against the horse, causing him to take fright and run away. Passing down Webster street at a frightful rate he ran on the sidewalk just below Congress street, and fell, stopping the wagon so suddenly as to throw all of the persons who were in it out on the pavement. The driver turned a complete somersault over the horse, and struck his head against a post cutting a severe gash in it. The boy was thrown a distance of ten or twelve feet down the street, lighting in such a position as to dislocate his left knee joint, while the old man escaped with but slight injuries. The boy was taken to his home and a surgeon called, who attended to his injuries. The injuries of the driver, although severe and painful for a short time, were not serious. The horse was considerably injured, but will recover, and the wagon was partially demolished.

A Rich Yield of Silver.

We were to-day shown specimens of silver ore of rare richness, from the High Bridge Ledge, Nye county, Nevada territory. Mr. Otto Wuth, analytic chemist, of this city, analyzed some of the ore, and gave the following certificate:

DEAR SIR: I have made a careful analysis of the specimens of silver ore from High Bridge Ledge, Nye county, Nevada, and find them to contain 1368 ⅓ troy ounces of pure silver per ton (the troy ounce of silver at $1.30 would give $1,385 78 per ton of ore (2,000 lbs). The ore contains scarcely one per cent. of copper.

Yours, O. WUTH.

The owner of one of the best sections of this ledge, six thousand two hundred and fifty feet in length, is in our city, and proposes to raise a company for its development on terms so liberal that they will commend themselves to all. He is well known by some of our most prominent citizens, and has also the strongest endorsement of D. R. Ashley, member of Congress from that territory, Senators Nye and Stewart, and many other of the most prominent men in Nevada. We trust some of our capitalists will give the matter a full investigation as it promises rich and abundant returns.

Surety of the Peace.

Frank Dietzer and Joseph Shearen, are residents of the Fifth ward. They had a difficulty, and Shearen being on the muscle, challenged Dietzer to settle the affair, under the rules of the London "P R" Frank "couldn't see it," but concluded to settle Shearen in another way, and yesterday he made an information before Alderman Taylor against him, for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

BOOK STORE ROBBED.—Pittock's book store, corner of Smithfield and Fifth streets was entered during Thursday night, when money and goods to the amount of forty dollars were carried away. An entrance was effected from Fifth street to the cellar, and from thence to the store room. About twenty dollars in money which had been left in the drawer was taken, together with a lot of base ball goods, caps, bats, belts, balls, &c. Several arrests were made during yesterday, but the parties were all subsequently discharged, there being insufficient evidence to warrant their detention.

COAL WORKS FOR SALE.—Capable of running from ten to fifteen thousand bushels per day—in complete order, including houses, flats, mules, and all things necessary to go right to work. Either one hundred and fifty or four hundred acres with the coal, including a brick mansion with thirty-five acres of garden land, fruit trees, &c. This is one of the finest works and property on the Monongahela river, and will be sold at a reasonable price and on easy terms; or one-half of the concern will be sold if application be made soon, at W. A. Herron's Real Estate Office, 80 Grant street, opposite the Court House.

RE-OPENING OF THE SIXTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—To-morrow morning the Sixth Presbyterian Church, which has been closed for the last eight weeks, will be re-opened for Divine worship. The pastor, Rev. Prof. Samuel J. Wilson, D. D., returned home this week from his usual summer vacation at St. Catherines, Canada West, very much improved in health. He will preach to-morrow, morning and evening. The church has been renovated, cleansed and newly carpeted, and presents an attractive appearance.

IMPORTANT.—If you have a piece of work which you wish to have done on short notice, and in a workmanlike manner, it is important to know where to find a man to do it, and if you have any gas fitting or plumbing to do, it is very important to know that T. T. Ewens, No. 165 Wood street, is attending to that business, and understands it thoroughly. Mr. Ewens does his work in a satisfactory manner, on short notice, and upon the most reasonable terms.

LARCENY.—Ann Paddon, residing in Foster's alley, made information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, against Bridget Rollins, charging her with larceny. It appears that Ann is a manufacturer and dealer in nets, which the ladies use to confine their hair, and that she had taken Bridget into her house out from hospitality, which she repaid by stealing four of Ann's nets. She was arrested and held for a hearing.

PLUMBING AND GAS FITTING.—The plumbing and gas fitting business is an extensive one in Pittsburgh, and no city can boast of more competent workmen, and we know of no establishment in the city superior to that of T. T. Ewens No. 165 Wood street. Mr. Ewens employs the best workmen, and work entrusted to them is sure to render satisfaction.

SACRED CONCERT.—A vocal and instrumental concert by a selected choir, under the direction of Prof. W. A. Lawton, will be given at the First Universalist Church, corner of Grant and Third streets, on Thursday evening, next, September 12th, for the benefit of the Sabbath School connected with that Church.

COL. J. D. FAGAN, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, has this day advertised a large stock of rare and valuable books, which he sells at half the price they can be obtained elsewhere. His stock of stationary is large and select and is sold at the very lowest rates.

QUARTER SESSIONS COURT.—The business transacted in the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday was of an unimportant nature, consisting of the disposition of surety of the peace and trifling assault and battery cases.

HEAVY RAIN.—A very heavy shower of rain fell here last evening, the heaviest we have had this season, and as a consequence the streets are not in a very favorable condition for paper soled shoes and long skirts.

THE BOAT RACE.—The boat race between Brown and Hamill, which was to have taken place at Newburg yesterday, was postponed until this morning, on account of rough water.

Fatal Accident.

A distressing accident occurred yesterday evening about four o'clock, at the Clinton Iron Works, in Monongahela Borough, resulting in the death of Hugh Stewart, a journey-man carpenter, who was employed by John Hecker. Mr. Stewart was engaged at the iron works above referred to, in making some repairs, and was standing on a beam about thirty feet from the ground, at which he was working. He had sawed the end of the beam partly off and for some reason stepped upon it, when it gave way, precipitating him to the ground, and the piece of timber fell upon his breast killing him instantly. The deceased was of Irish decent, was about thirty-five years of age, and has been married twice. He has one child by his first wife, a boy about twelve years old, who boarded with his father at a boarding house near the corner of Darrah and Robinson street, Allegheny City. He married his second wife about three weeks since. The body was conveyed to the boarding house above referred to where we presume an inquest will be held upon it to-day.

Silver Wedding.

Rev. I. N. Baird, and his estimable wife, on the occasion of their twenty-fifth marriage anniversary, some days since, were unexpectedly visited at their residence, in Salem, Ohio, by a number of friends, and presented with a munificent gift of silver table-ware. The visit of those friends was a complete, genuine surprise. Doctor Baird is well known in this community as an able minister, and as having been four years editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, and Presiding Elder of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Districts. He is now in his third and closing year at that sturdy town, where he has been favored with extraordinary ministerial success, especially during the past year.

Another Remarkable and Speedy Recovery.

The following additional testimony to the efficacy of Dr. Aborn's treatment has been handed us for publication:

I have been afflicted with an affection of the throat and chest and pain in the side, accompanied by a constant cough, for eighteen months. My friends believed that I had the consumption, and acting upon the advice of one of them I applied to Dr. Aborn three weeks ago, and placed myself under his care. I gradually grew better, and am to-day quite restored to health and vigor. The cure has been a remarkable one, and I take pleasure in recommending other sufferers to call at once upon Dr. Aborn.

Beat and Abused.

Jacob Cornelius appeared before Alderman Thomas, yesterday, and preferred an information for assault and battery against John Lynch. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant did strike him several times in various parts of his body, abusing him severely without any reason whatever. A warrant was issued, and the defendant was arrested and held to bail for Court. The parties reside in Oakland township.

THE COMING ELECTION.

The election in Pennsylvania is distant only a month. As yet, no special excitement has been disclosed in either of the political parties. From the nature of the case the usual amount of interest could not reasonably be anticipated. The canvass is, indeed, one of importance, but this consequence is inferential rather than direct. It goes out of collateral considerations rather than out of the number and magnitude of the offices to be filled. If the President had kept his promises to execute the Reconstruction acts in the spirit in which they were conceived and expressed, notwithstanding his original objections to them, it would have been a difficult task to draw this autumn anything like an average proportion of voters to the polls. After intense agitation necessarily comes a longing for quietude. The desire for repose was almost universal; and this the President rudely dashed.

On the Democratic side, unless there are currents in motion so deep down below the surface as to escape observation, there is next to no animation in any section of the State. None of the usual evidences of activity are visible. However, it will not do to trust appearances. There may be secret agencies in operation; or other and ordinary instrumentalities may be already prepared, and held in readiness for late disclosure, so as to take the Republicans by surprise. True, this is improbable; but in political campaigning, it is the part of wisdom and safety to guard against all possible contingencies.

On the part of the Republicans the movement, which commenced languidly, has quickened. Most of the local tickets have been framed, and generally with no more grumbling than commonly ensues from the disappointments inevitable from rivalries. In many districts an unusual degree of harmony prevails. Quite a number of mass meetings have been held, with audiences unexpectedly large and enthusiastic. Many more meetings have either been announced, or are in preparation.

As to general principles and the measures to be pursued, there has never been such identity of view and purpose as now prevails. For this the Republicans have to thank the President. What they could not do for themselves, he has done for them. By his contempt alike for his own word and the wishes of the loyal people, he has well-nigh banished conservatism from the Republican ranks.

What now remains is certainly to get the Republicans to the polls. That has been rendered comparatively easy by the President. Most of the Republicans are eager to record at the ballot-box their condemnation of the President, and to send omens of cheer to faithful Senators and Representatives in Congress. Of course there are laggards. In the most exciting canvasses there are always such. To get these out, is a labor which the local committees should set about in earnest and with little delay. This done, the voice of Pennsylvania will be heard again, clear, emphatic and commanding.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser narrates conversations recently held by him with Senators SUMNER and WILSON and Representatives BUTLER on the present aspect of public affairs and public men. As two of these men, at least, may be regarded as leaders of opinion, their judgments are deserving of special consideration. Let us group them under appropriate heads:

1. Of Mr. Stanton.

Mr. Sumner said of him, "he has not the element of personal popularity. He never cultivated amenities. He is often impatient, cold, and even harsh and antagonistic. But he is always a patriot. His fidelity has been constant down to the last. He must have a great place in history. Louvois, Pitt, and Carnot were great War Ministers—the greatest Stanton, must find a place in this group."

Gen. Butler said: "Stanton has the confidence of the country—deservedly—both from his private character and his official action, and I know no one patriotic man who did not feel safer, both in the present and future, because of Stanton's position in the War Office. I can not doubt for a moment that Congress by the action of the Senate and by legislation will at once reinstate him. He is the Secretary of War and will remain so in spite of Executive usurpation."

Mr. Wilson said: "We owe a debt of gratitude to Stanton, which we will be a long time in paying; for among all his great services he has stood true and stood the great trial of office under Johnson to save what we had carried."

2. Of Gen. Grant.

Mr. Sumner said: "Of his action in taking Stanton's place, if there is any secret history to let in light upon it, I do not know it. There can be no military obligation on a General to assume a civil office. Grant might have refused and thrilled the people to the confusion of the President and the rebels. So, at least, it seems to me. Such a refusal would have been notice that a patriot like Stanton should not be struck through him, and would have helped to make the Presidential power less. It would have been notice also to the rebels that they could have no hope through him. I confess this is what I must long for. Our next President must be in himself an "irreversible guarantee." Is Grant such? I wish I knew. Personally, I like him. In conversation he is neat and precise, with clean cut ideas and words."

Gen. Butler said: "Grant has taken upon himself a very difficult and dangerous role. If he can carry himself safely through it, I shall give him credit for more ability than I have ever been inclined to do. He has not the excuse that he acted under orders. As a military officer he could not be ordered to take a purely civil office, as the office of Secretary of War is. Such an appointment would be simply a request. And nobody saw more clearly the difference between a request and an order than Grant, when he instructed Sheridan that Stanbery's opinion, then published by the Commander-in-Chief for the guidance of the district commanders, was not an order, and, therefore, as military men, they were not bound by it, but could follow their own judgment. Yet his friends claim for him that he has twice, in his own person, construed the President's request into an order—first, when invited to 'swing round the circle,' and again, when invited to the war office, ad interim."

Mr. Wilson said: "I know this, that Gen. Grant, like some other men who were behind the scenes, has been more anxious during the last twelve months about the condition of affairs than he ever was during the war, and so expressed himself. It is the same with Stanton. Now, in regard to what you ask about Grant's going in there, it is not a matter of belief but of knowledge to me, beyond any sort of doubt, that Gen. Grant has entered on that duty to do what he could and save what he could for the country."

3. Of President Johnson.

Mr. Sumner said: "The President is perverse, pig-headed and brutal. His talent, such as it is, comes from pugnacity, or as the phrenologists have it, combativeness. When aroused against Jeff. Davis in the Senate, he was on the right side and his temper gave to his arguments additional force. We all sympathised with him then. We did not know how foolish and shallow he was, nor did we see his prejudices. Little did we think of the evil he would do! I have often said that no man in history has ever done so much evil to his country in the same time. Of course he is a usurper and a tyrant. The wonder is Congress did not act accordingly long ago. It will read badly enough hereafter that Congress did not put him at once in a straight jacket. His crime is shared by Congress. But I am blameless. I have protested and insisted. To me the case for proceeding was always clear as noon."

General Butler said: "The situation would be sufficiently alarming if it was certain that Johnson was acting from purpose and plan, and not from obstinacy and personal ill will. If he could be calculated upon, as another man might be, one would say that these acts in removing Stanton, Sheridan and Sickles were part of a plan to take control of the Government, upon the theory that the legislation of Congress was unconstitutional, and therefore not binding upon the Executive. His course would seem to indicate that putting Gen. Grant into the War Department and exhibiting him as obeying and carrying out his orders, was not to familiarize the army to obedience to Johnson's commands, and to show them that the highest officer must be, in military affairs, subservient to his will. But the imbecility and wavering of the President heretofore relieves the country from any pressing belief of danger. Johnson lacks courage and capacity. If he should reorganize his Cabinet and put at the head of it a man like Black, who has both courage and capacity, then, indeed, in view of the belief that would be engendered by the probable turn of the elections in some of the States in the Fall, that a Conservative reaction had begun—then one could easily predict the probable turn of events. But now we are in the condition of the sportsman who refused to match his blood horse for a race with the farmer's old white bull, because no man could tell how fast a lop-horned bull would run."

Mr. Wilson said: "A prominent Democrat whose name is known everywhere—a man whom the President consults, but a personal friend of Stanton—called on the President and earnestly advised him not to remove the Secretary. He said—I used his own words—that the President raved like a mad bull, and swore that he would remove Stanton. His friend told him that in his judgment it would lead to his own impeachment by Congress. "Johnson said they might impeach; that he would turn Stanton out if he was tried and shot for it! The same friend said that Johnson had been acting in a terrible passion lately all the time."

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Church Union claims to be "The Freest Organ of Thought in the World," and not without impropriety either, as its clear, open pages demonstrate to its readers. Its liberal way of dealing with some questions must shock the tender nerves of old fogies a good deal, a class of persons who abound among all bodies of Christians. Its mechanical execution, clear, bright text, good white paper, and taste in arranging departments, are highly commendable. Twelve pages are furnished, containing a weekly sermon by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. But we meant to give the principles which govern its conduct—in a word, it is the organ of no sect, but will aim to represent every branch of the Church of Christ. It is Trinitarian in creed, opposes Ritualism and Infidelity, favors a free pulpit, advocates a free communion table, universal suffrage, equal rights to every man and woman of whatsoever nationality. Writers and editors of every branch of the Church are engaged on the paper.

The Cincinnati Conference of the M. E. Church, at its session just held at Urbana, adopted a strong paper, denouncing the course of the President in his interpretation of the Reconstruction Law, and conduct towards those who are endeavoring faithfully to execute it in the manner Congress designed it should be. Resolutions were also passed, urging the Ohio Legislature to strike out the word "white" from the Constitution of that State.

An exhibit of the Methodist Book Concern at Cincinnati shows the aggregate sales of the past year to have been $628,453.76, being an increase of nearly ten thousand dollars over the previous year. The circulation of the periodicals of the "Concern" amount annually to 350,000 copies.

Rev. W. C. McCune, pastor of the Orchard United Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, for the past ten or twelve years, preached his farewell sermon lately. He is to take charge of an O. S. Presbyterian Mission Church, in that city.

The Boston (Catholic) Pilot thinks the man is to-day living who will see a majority of the people on the American continent Roman Catholics.

A prominent Boston paper (Zion's Herald), speaking of the frequency of divorce out West, Chicago and other points, says as objectionable as Catholicism is, it won't recognize the right of divorce. "What God hath joined together let not man put asunder," is their simple rule of action.

A peculiar request was presented at the Fulton street Prayer Meeting, New York, for a young lady, a daughter of Protestant parents, who is about to enter a convent, that she may be led to see the error of her way, and resist this temptation. When the request was presented, the meeting was about to close, but her case was urged in prayer to God in the merits of the Redeemer, to be answered according to the ways and plans of his own infinite wisdom.

The progressive Jews in some places have organized Sunday Schools in their Synagogues on the Lord's day. The old line Jews use the ram's horn, keep the men and women apart at worship, and keep things in the old style. The Progressive Jews, however,—and they are educated, young and rich,—want pews, want families to sit together as in Christian meetings, want an organ, and are quite ready for worship on Sunday. These eat ham, oysters, and other things forbidden in the law. They make a distinction between the sanitary and moral precepts of the law. The Christian Union says this class of Jews are about to erect in New York city one of the most gorgeous of synagogues, in which to carry out their ideas.

The Universe, referring to the panegyric at St. Augustine's Catholic church, in Philadelphia, on St. Augustine, complains that while the music was elaborate, it was colder than a snow-ball. It stirred no heart-string present, either in solo, or concerted part, or in the instrumentation. Too much science and too little feeling. Speaking of the members of the choir, it says no one can make silk out of baragon.

The tenth anniversary of the celebrated Fulton street Prayer Meeting, New York City, will be commemorated in the Old North Church, corner of Fulton and William streets, on Monday, September 23d at twelve o'clock, noon.

The Round Table, after disposing of the religious and secular papers generally, particularly the leading Methodist organ, has turned its attention to the backsliding Independent. The point of attack is the boasting of that paper, of its "vast" circulation. The weakness of that Ishmallitish journal are set forth in no very flattering light.

The Christian Intelligencer of late bristles all over with battle upon the question of changing the name of its denomination by dropping the "Dutch." Ably edited and interesting as the paper usually is, for some weeks past, it has not been as interesting to readers outside of the members of that body as usual.

The Episcopal Diocesan Convention at Chicago argues that the cause of so many divorces arise is, because the marriage contract is regarded as a merely "legal or mercenary contract." To counteract this evil, or rather the remedy proposed, is, that marriage ceremonies be celebrated as much as possible in the Church edifice, and that it should be regarded as a "holy union by the Church."

St. Ann's Episcopal Church congregation, of Brooklyn, Rev. Dr. N. H. Schenck, Rector, have contracted for the erection of an elegant new building. The estimated cost is three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Now that the Reformed Dutch Church is agitating the question of striking out "Dutch" from the name, the following bit of legislation in the Lutheran Church in 1835 will be of interest. The report of the Missionary and Education Committee of the New York Lutheran Ministerum, states that we want clergymen, particularly native born clergymen, who can preach in German and English, and who can go forth, possessing not only the spirit of the Gospel, but also that of our American institutions, manners, etc.

It is rumored that the American Catholic bishops and clergy, returning from the grand convocation at Rome, are dissatisfied that a Cardinal's hat was not given to an American bishop, notwithstanding the Pope was reminded of the vast sums of money sent him by the United States.

The Religious Telescope, of the United Brethern Church, shows very clearly that the system of Ministerial Beneficiary Societies are based upon a wrong principle, because it rests upon the idea that ministerial support, from beginning to end, is a charity. It argues that a minister is a necessity to society; as much so as the farmer, the mechanic, the physician, and the lawyer. He further thinks the system is degrading to humanity.

A Chicago Religious weekly in discussing the habit of ministers reading their sermons, expresses the view that a healthful reaction is taking place in favor of preaching instead of reading. It asks the question, if ministers, who read their sermons, ever think how they will look reading them through a pair of glasses, and that it will be a needlessly premature advertisement of past maturity.

There are in Virginia and West Virginia over eight hundred Baptist churches, with one hundred and eighteen thousand members, besides over six thousand anti-mission Baptists.

An interesting scene occurred two Sabbaths ago at Salem, Ohio, in the M. E. Church, under the pastoral care of Rev. Dr. I. N. Baird, on the occasion of the reception of one hundred and one probationers into full membership. This is the first installment of the persons converted at the wonderful work of revival, which took place under his ministration last Winter and Spring. It is well to note in this connection, that persons received on trial, when they join the M. E. Church, must stand a probation of six months. If their religious life is consistent with the Word of God, and the Discipline of the Church, and they desire it, they are formally received into full membership by the pastor, after a careful examination in the presence of the whole congregation.

NEVER was there a time when predictions concerning the prospective peace of Europe were so little trusted. The dispatches on the same subject from the different capitals of Europe are often flatly contradictory. War dispatches and peace dispatches come together, as if Dame Rumor was crowning her long travesty by blowing hot and cold out of the same mouth. After all Europe has been sufficiently convulsed with the affair of the Southern Bund, the official Gazette of Stuttgart denies that "a Bund was even broached" at Salzburg. Before us lies a collection of ten or twelve contradictory utterances by reputed official journals, on the famous North Schleswig "Note"—not merely on general grounds, for there the contradictions were myriad, but as to whether any such Note ever existed. As it was with that already-forgotten North-Schleswig question, and with so many other nine day's wonders as the balance of the year can contain. Drugged with sensationalism as it never was before, Europe is nervous to the last degree, and all political news is likely to be exaggerated.

TWENTY-FIFTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—We learn from private sources, that the Republicans of Allegheny county have nominated Russell Errett, candidate for Senator in place of Hon. Thomas J. Bigham, whose term expired last session. Mr. Errett was chief clerk of the Senate at a time when he displayed the highest parliamentary ability. During the war he was a paymaster in the army, and for a considerable period before he went into the army and after he left it, was business manager of the Pittsburgh Gazette. He is unquestionably a gentleman of decided ability—a firm and radical Republican, who will faithfully represent the wishes and serve the interests of a constituency. We congratulate our old friend on his nomination.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

GROWING REPUTATION.

If the entire correspondence from South America, Central America and the West Indies, received by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, during the last twelve months, were published at length, it would probably be considered one of the most extraordinary collections of approbatory testimony on record. The letters, written in every variety of style, and emanating from individuals of almost every class, are nevertheless, all of the same tenor. Physicians, priests, merchants, planters, military officers, artisans, lawyers, &c., tell one story, admitting, without reserve or qualification, that the tonics heretofore in use in those regions have been generally and justly superseded by HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The confidence manifested by the people of these countries might be fairly called enthusiastic. Yet these are not the only tokens of the growing popularity of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The foreign orders for the article from Europe, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, East Indies, Cape of Good Hope, Sandwich Islands, &c., have been heavier than at any former period. As an antidote to malaria, a stomachic and general invigorant, they all testify to its remarkable efficacy.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which had been advised to "let alone" on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten on my lungs. I knew that the popular mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to a discharge which I was constrained to believe was a salutary provision of Nature to get rid of some morbid condition in the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying to the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, C—.

Dr. Keyser's consultation rooms are No. 120 Penn street, from 8 A. M. until 4 p. m.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC!
A FEW AVARICIOUS AND UNPRINCIPLED FLOUR DEALERS in and around Pittsburgh are now purchasing second-hand sacks, with our brand upon them, filling them with an inferior quality, and selling it as our Flour. Finding it difficult to procure the quantity of second-hand sacks they are trying to get the sack maker here to make and print a lot for them.
To prevent this fraud, we are now pasting our sacks, and sealing them with a printed label with name of firm and date of manufacture.
As we keep a register of the Flour made each day, and the kind of wheat ground, we are at all times enabled to know the quality of Flour made.
LOOK OUT FOR SHORT WEIGHTS!
Some of the dealers who are filling the sacks, are putting up short weights, in some cases equal to twenty pounds per barrel, making fully one dollar per barrel loss to the consumer.
A REWARD OF $50.00
Will be paid for information that will lead to the detection and conviction of any person engaged in this fraudulent business.

THE
RAILROAD,
THE WESTERN HALF OF THE
Great National Trunk Line Across the Continent,
Being constructed with the AID AND SUPERVISION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, is destined to be one of the MOST IMPORTANT AND VALUABLE RAILROADS IN THE WORLD, as it is the sole link of communication between the Pacific Coast and the Great Interior Basin, and the Principal Portion of the Main Stem Line Between the two Oceans.
The present western terminus is at Sacramento, on the navigable waters of the Pacific, but it will ultimately extend from San Francisco across the richest and most populous parts of California, Nevada and Utah, contiguous to all the great Mining Regions of the Far West. The Company are authorized to continue their line eastward until it shall meet and connect with the roads now building east of the Rocky Mountain ranges.
Assuming that they will build and control half the entire distance between San Francisco and the Missouri River, as now seems probable, the United States will have invested in the completion of 863 miles $28,592,000, or at the average rate of $33,000 per mile, not including an absolute grant of 10,000,000 acres of the Public Lands. By becoming a joint investor in the magnificent enterprise, and by waiving its first lien in favor of the First Mortgage Bondholders, THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT, INVITES THE CO-OPERATION OF PRIVATE CAPITALISTS, and has carefully guarded their interests against all ordinary contingencies.
The Central Pacific Railroad enjoys all the privileges, grants, and subsidies conferred by the Acts of Congress upon the other parts of the through line, and has, in addition several special, exclusive advantages applicable only to the Western Half.
I. The Company has received from the State and chief cities of California, assistance in money, credit, and valuable property, worth over $3,000,000 in gold, in addition to the full benefit of the Government subsidy.
II. [illegible]
III. The local business alone of this road established [illegible]
IV. It can have no competition, but will carry, beside its own lucrative local traffic, the whole volume of through business which is shared among all its Eastern connections and their branches.
V. The road lies wholly in territory yielding the precious metals, and its revenues are collected in coin. [illegible]
VI. In consequence of the aid it receives from the General Government, from the State of California, and from municipal corporations, the annual interest obligations which the Company are called upon to assume are very light. [illegible]

HUGH McKELVEY, P. M.

Women in Court.

The number of women in attendance at the Court of Quarter Sessions, so far during the present term, has been unprecedentedly large. Upwards of forty were present yesterday, at least a dozen of whom bore infants in their arms, whose "squaking" now and then necessitated their removal until the little pests had their wants supplied. This array of crinoline and babies, as may be supposed, rendered the Court room not a comfortable place, and the inconvenience and discomfort experienced was largely shared by the women themselves, many not being able to obtain seats, and those fortunate in this respect suffered from the crowding of those obliged to seek standing room. The space within the bar usually allotted to women was crammed, and the excess was distributed through other parts of the room. The retunda at the entrance was thronged, and even in the lobby bonnets covering other than "colored" heads were observable. A reason for this unusually large number of women attending Court is to be found in the array of surety of the peace cases which already burden the calender. It also affords a fair index of the "business" which has been transacted by the magistrates in the interval between the June and September terms of Court. The cases sent up, many of them, are of a very trifling character, and should never have been entertained. Having been submitted for the consideration of the Court, however, they must be disposed of, and Judge Stowe was, during the present week, tortured beyond measure, his well-known and proverbial amiability of temper sorely tested, in being obliged to sit in judgment of the merits of the petty bickerings between that class of women who delight in "clashing" and are in their element when a neighborhood row, a "talking" or a "scolding" match, is on hand. In most of the surety and also assault and battery cases heard, the trouble originated about children, and the parties in some instances made most disgusting exhibitions of themselves by repeating with exactness the foul epithets uttered pro and con, not with that delicateness ordinarily characteristic of the sex, but with a glibness indicating not only the animus of the women testifying, but also forcing the conclusion that such styles of expression were not unfamiliar to them, and were a constituent element in their neighborhood. We might enlarge upon the subject, and give our readers a clearer conception of what the Court is obliged to endure in discharging required duties. Any one who desires to fully appreciate the effect of the encouragement of litigation by magistrates, through their cupidity, upon the community generally, should punish himself by a few days attendance at the Quarter Sessions.

Attempt to Kill by Scalding.

The saloon of Mr. Conlin, on Gilmore street, above Campbell, says the Williamsport Gazette, was the scene of a deplorable crime on Tuesday morning. The active parties in the matter were Jane McGrath and Michael Shannon. They are both from Elmira, New York, and have been in this city five or six weeks. Jane has been working for Mrs. Conlin, at the above saloon, and although well behaved, was in an interesting condition, of which Michael was the cause. Marriage was solicited by the young lady, and when refused she began a prosecution. Through promises, or other influence, she failed to appear at Court, and the case was abandoned. On Monday night Shannon came from Elmira, went to Conlin's saloon, got some beer and went to sleep on a bench. About four o'clock, on Tuesday morning, he awoke and saw Jane near him with a bowl in her hand. He threw up his arm in protection, when the contents, consisting of water and lye in a boiling condition, was thrown on his head and neck, scalding him very severely. Jane immediately fled, but was arrested on Tuesday morning, and is now confined in the Grand Jury room in the Court House. She is almost constantly bemoaning her fate in loud and incoherent tones.

Shannon is under medical attendance. At first his sight and hearing were thought to be endangered, but he is improving, and will not lose the use of either of these organs.

Health Report.

Dr. A. G. McCandless, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the following interments from August 25th to September 1st, 1867:

Diseases—Pneumonia, 2; Poisoning, 1; Adynamia, 1; Consumption, 1; Cholera Infantum, 4; Disease of Brain, 2; Diptheria, 1; Whooping Cough, 1; Marasmus, 1; Diarrhea, 1; Ulceration of Bowels, 1; Still Born, 1.

Males, 11; Females, 6; White, 17; Colored, 0; Total, 17.

Of the above there were: Under 1 year, 8; from 1 to 2, 3; 2 to 5, 1; 20 to 30, 3; 30 to 40, 1; 40 to 50, 1.

Pickpockets.—A lady had her pocket picked in the Allegheny market, yesterday morning, while making some purchases there. She felt a hand in her pocket but was unable to see the thief, who was apparently behind her, on account of the crowd. Her pocket book, containing about ten dollars, was taken. She thinks the thief was a woman as she saw no man in the immediate vicinity at the time the act was committed.

Messrs. Burke & Barnes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN—We ship you, to-day, by railroad, a safe of your make, for a few repairs. The safe went through the disastrous fire that occurred here on the 6th of March last, burning our store and warehouse, and we are glad to inform you that the papers taken out of the safe after the fire were not harmed in the least. We did not suppose any safe, especially so small a size, could possibly stand such a fire, and when we discovered the papers all safe and sound, we were agreeably disappointed. We will give you an order for a large size safe when we get into our new store. Truly yours,

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 6, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 142¾; Eighty-one bonds, 112; Five Twenties, 1862, 114¾; Five Twenties, 1864 110; Five Twenties, 1865, 111⅝; 5-20 Consols, 108⅜; Seven Thirties, 107⅛@107⅛; Ten Forties, 99⅜; Stocks—Erie Railroad, 69⅞; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 86⅞; Chicago and Rock Island, 104⅞; Chicago and Northwestern, 45⅝; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, 70⅝; Fort Wayne Railroad, 106⅜; Michigan Southern Railroad, 82⅛; New York Central, 106⅛; Reading, 102⅞; Western Union Telegraph Co., 43⅝; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 27¾; Mining shares—Corydon, 1,50; Gregory, 6,70; Quartz Hill, 1,65; Smith & Paramalee, 5,60; Quicksilver, 27¾.

Gold was strong at 142⅛@142⅜. The stock market opened strong at a slight advance, but after second board declined about ¼@⅜ per cent., and closed very weak. The impression prevails that but a few large holders have been selling to frighten some of the weak holders to part with their stocks at lower rates; the indications of the market are decidedly bullish, and some of the principal operators have bought heavily within the last few days. Government bonds are lower for 7-30s, 5-20s of 1865 and 1881 bonds. There is a general disposition among large holders to sell out and invest at a higher rate of interest. The charges on call loans are up to 4@5 per cent. on Government collaterals.

Mining shares have slightly improved. There is some inquiry for the dividend paying oil stocks. Columbia is offered at seven dollars. Triumph from 1,90@2,00, and Ralston inquired for without any sales being effected.

—The falling off in the receipts of grain, attributable to the recent rains, preventing field threshing to any extent, has exercised a corresponding influence on the money market and there is now less demand for currency. The country banks are checking for smaller amounts, and the commission merchants are making fewer remittances to the interior. The demand for discounts show a slight increase but without producing any change in the tone of the market. Money is easy for all legitimate purposes. Funds, however, do not go begging for investment, as is plainly evidenced by the scrutiny to which paper is subjected. The discount rate is firm at 10 per cent., and we hear of no paper being done for less. On call, money can be had at 8 per cent. on Governments and city bonds.—Chicago Tribune.

"The market was known to have been oversold, and a house, supposed to be largely "long" of governments, sought to convert a loss into a profit by borrowing all the bonds it could for a certain number of days, ranging from ten to twenty, and so drawing such a scarcity as to compel those who had sold "short," or even sold in the regular way against the bonds they had loaned to the firm in question, to buy back the securities at higher prices in order to make their deliveries; for to borrow them was rendered impossible by the corneres. The bears are, of course, greatly chagrined at this unexpected turn of the tide against them. The practice of selling government securities "short," however, is to be deprecated, as it offers temptations to the bears to resort to such tricks of Wall street as this, and leads to fluctuations which, being entirely of a speculative character, afford no criterion of the natural course of the market. They also tend to disturb confidence in the stability of government securities as investments, which might ultimately exert a somewhat damaging effect upon their market value. At present money lenders show a preference for these over other collaterals by lending on them at one per cent. below the usual rate for call loans, but this distinction will become less marked in proportion as they become speculative and liable to be artificially advanced or depressed, for an artificial rise involves a corresponding decline when the support is withdrawn."

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, September 5, 1866.

CRUDE—The market was very much excited to-day, and the sales were the largest we have had reported for several weeks, reaching over thirty thousand barrels in the aggregate. Prices have still further advanced—spot oil sold freely at 13c, while all the year, buyer's option, brought 13¼c, and at the close, holders were almost afraid to name a price, being apprehensive that they might possibly be "picked up." The reported sales were as follows:

2000 bbls,	all the year, buyer	13¼c
2000 "	September and October	13¼c
1500 "	on spot	13c
1000 "	"	13c

2000 "	September and October	13¼c
1000 "	October—delivered at works	13c
2000 "	on spot	13c
250 "	"	13c
3000 "	March and April, buyer	13½c
2000 "	on spot	13c
3000 "	until April, buyer	13½c

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also considerably excited to-day, but the extreme views of holders had a tendency to retard operations. With Antwerp quoted at 55 francs, and Liverpool at 1s. 7d., sellers were disposed to hold off in anticipation of still better prices here, and many of our refiners are not very favorably impressed with selling "short." The following sales were reported: 500 bbls for all September, buyer's option, at 28c, delivered on cars here; 500 bbls for October, same option, at 31½c, delivered in Philadelphia; 1500—500 each for November, December and January, at 34c; 1500 for same delivery, at same price, and 500 on spot, prime light straw to white, at 31½c.

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 6, 1867.

The metal market has been very dull this week, the transactions, in the aggregate, being unusually light, but prices have undergone no quotable change. The mills, as a general thing, are pretty well stocked, having bought pretty liberally last month, while foundry men, as has been the case all season, are buying very sparingly. The stock of crude irons, especially desirable brands, is pretty well reduced, and, thus far, there is no disposition manifested to make concessions in order to effect sales. The following transactions were reported:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 6, 1867.

There is a firmer feeling in the general market, and while prices are tending upward, as yet, there is no quotable change. There is an improved demand for Grain, and with a falling off in the arrivals, holders are asking an advance, and while Flour is quiet, there is a firmer feeling on the part of dealers, and if anything, the tendency is upward. In other articles, there is no change worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in demand, and prime Penna. and Ohio Red sells readily at $2,20@2,25. Oats firmer and under the influence of light arrivals, prices are tending upward; sale of 400 bush on track, at 54c; and 120 bush on track, at same figure. Corn is scarce, excited, in demand and higher; prime yellow may be fairly quoted at $1,10@1,12. Rye is firm but unchanged; sale of 1000 bush, to arrive, $1,15; and 400 bush in two lots, on spot, at $1,20. Barley is in demand; sale of 2000 bush prime Spring at $1,15, to arrive.

FLOUR—There is no material improvement to note in the demand, but the market is steady and prices are well sustained. We continue to quote at $10@10,50 for Spring Wheat; $10,75@11,25 for Winter Wheat; and $13@14 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is quiet and unchanged; small sales in store at $7,75@8.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with regular sales at full prices—13¼@13½c for Shoulders; 15¼@16½c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 21½@22c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull, but firm at 13½c, in tierces, and 13¾@14c, in kegs. Mess Pork is quiet and unchanged at $24 to $24 50.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; small sales of prime pail and firkin Butter at 24c@25c. There is no demand whatever for common packed.

EGGS—Fresh packed are scarce, in demand and higher—sales reported to-day at 18@20c.

SEEDS—There is some inquiry for Flaxseed, and we heard of $2,40 having been offered. We can report a sale of Timothy Seed, to the trade, at $2,50, but in small lots, it is held at $2,75@3. There seems to be no demand for Clover Seed.

GREEN APPLES—In good supply and dull, and the arrivals are in excess of the wants of the trade. Small sales at $2, $2,50 and $3 per bbl, according to quality.

OIL—Lard Oil is quoted firm by manufacturers at 85c for No. 2, and $1,05 for No. 1.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged; regular sales at 12½@15c, according to quality.

PEACHES—Sold to-day at from $2,50@3,25 per box, according to quality and condition.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 6.—The Dry Goods market, for most descriptions of goods, such as domestic and foreign, is now quite active, especially for desirable styles, and prices are generally firm, and on some styles a slight advance was obtained, though on a few others there is a slight concession noticeable, as, for instance, the Tuscarora bleached Muslins, which are selling at 22½@23½. The Lawrence brown sheeting is being jobbed at 16½, which is at least ½c below the market. Indian Orchard brown goods are also quoted by one house too low, otherwise prices are generally strong. The Lawrence B. Brown are firmer and bring 16½ Great Falls bleached 13¾@14; Canoe, 9. Hamilton D Ticks are selling at 25; York 28½. York Denims are reduced to 27½. RIVER NEWS.

A dispatch from St. Joseph, dated September 2d, says: The Columbian ran aground on the sand bank in front of this city last evening, but after hard labor was released at an early hour this morning, and proceeded on the down trip. It is reported that the Glasgow is aground above Weston. The river is quite low, and the channel at this point has changed very much within the past few days.

The Nashville Press and Times, of Tuesday, has the following: In February of 1865, the steamer Imperial ran against one of the piers of the railroad bridge in going down the river and sunk, with all her cargo, the river at the time being very high. Last summer the boilers were taken out at the head of the small island just this side of the race track. Captain McCombs is now at work with a gang of hands raising the machinery of the boat, which grounded six miles below town, at Bell's Mills. The river now being extremely low, it is thought that all of it can be recovered.

A dispatch, dated Omaha, September 3d, says: The Missouri is very low and navigation extremely difficult. The Colorado and J. H. Lacy have been aground on sand bars for the last two days. The Colorado arrived Sunday night, but the Lacey is still aground opposite Brownsville, sixty miles below here.

The General Quitman is about ready to resume her trips in the cotton trade, and is advertised to leave Cairo for Memphis and New Orleans on the 10th inst. The R. E. Lee will be all ready and right for the fall trade in a few weeks.

Capt. Wm. Throckmorton has been appointed to command the Montana, in the upper Mississippi dredging business, under the supervision of Engineer Warren.

We copy the following from the Memphis Bulletin: It is a fact not generally known that Mark Twain was some years since a Mississippi river boatman. His name is Sam Clemens, and he was raised at Hannibal, Missouri. He learned the river between New Orleans and St. Louis under Bart Bowen, and made his first effort as a writer in a take off on Captain Sellers, long known as a commander on the river. Mark had an uncle or something of that sort, that got an appointment in Montana or somewhere out that way, and he took his younger relation along as private Secretary. That is the way Twain came to emigrate and repudiate first principles. Over among the wild mountain gorges of the gold country Mark got to writing, instead of gold digging, and has made some reputation in that way. Whether he has made money at it is not known.

Captain Jesse Bell and lady, both of whom have been ill with yellow fever, in New Orleans, are getting better.

Capt. Ashbury, of the steamer Andy Johnston, writes from Alton, under date of August 30, as follows: "Passed Tom Jasper before we got to Bissell's point. Beat her at least six miles to Alton. Time to Alton—2 hours 17 minutes.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Wednesday, says: The river to Cairo is becoming daily worse, The Lady Gay was badly aground some hours at the mouth of the Meramec. The Minnesota river boats are being withdrawn on account of low water. Above LaCrosse, the Mississippi is low and difficult to navigate. An injunction has been granted against the owners of the steamer Little Rock, to restrain them from disposing of the boat's funds until the claims of the Captain and Pilot are adjudicated.

The officers of the Minnesota say the following account of the murder of the mate of that steamer is essentially correct: "The Minnesota passed down, and brought the news of the murder of her first mate, Phil. Metahon, by a crowd of raftsmen, on her up trip, last Tuesday night, near LaCrosse. The raftsmen were discovered stealing apples by opening the barrels, and being remonstrated with by the mate, who was on watch, words led to blows, during which he was clubbed to death, and discovered but a few moments before he died. No one was present friendly to the mate. He was the best mate in the employ of the Norther Line, and had been in their service for years—rose from deck sweeper to the position he held. He was a steady, industrious man with a good record, and leaves a wife and children living on the Ohio river, at Rochester, thirty miles below Pittsburgh." No arrests were made, as the guilty parties could not be discovered or identified. Metchon began his connection with the Northern Line when the Hawkeye came out. His corpse will be taken east by his brother.

We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Thursday:

The C. C. M. Association held a meeting at their rooms yesterday morning, which was very largely attended. In regard to the new bill of lading there was but one opinion expressed, that being no more than steamboatmen had a right to demand and their interests require, they should stand firmly by it. Some important business was transacted. The following, in reference to the bill of lading trouble here, is from the St. Louis Democrat, of Tuesday: "We believe the Boatmen's Association took action yesterday in regard to the Cincinnati bill of lading imbroglio, so far as to appoint a committee to draft resolutions sustaining the boatmen, or something to that effect."

The Silver Cloud departed for New Orleans with two barges well laden. She has fifty tons engaged at Madison, and another engagement at Jeffersonville, and will go out of the Ohio with about all she can carry.

Capt. Smith announces the Spray for Marietta, and intends putting her in that trade as a regular packet. She is an exceedingly light draught boat, and can run up to that point in much less water than there is at present.

We extract the following items from the St. Louis Democrat of Thursday: The Minnie continues laid up. The Arkansas is not the valuable trade we expect to see it when Capt. Tom Voorhees builds for it that fine side wheel boat much like the Octavia. Mr Hancock has chartered the Lancaster to tow barges with freight between this point and Peoria. He has not chartered the Helena, although it was supposed he tried to get her yesterday. Captain Pepper has resigned from the Arthur and returns to Cincinnati. During the low water the Atlantic line packets will leave St. Louis at 10 a. m., beginning with the Olive Branch this morning. The Arthur leaves Saturday morning, Capt. Louis Drouillard in command. The packet days thereafter will be Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays, at 10 a. m. The hull of the Alton packet Alton Belle, lately ordered on the Ohio, is to cost as per contract, $44,000.

The Helena Herald of the 31st says the steamer Miner was heard from at Cow Island, above Muscle Shoals, getting along slowly. It is feared several steamers above Fort Union will not be able to get up to Benton. The Deer Lodge passed down this morning with 200 or 300 passengers.
